

SCHEDULE

Friday night:

Session 1:

Explore our current views of work and Sabbath and compare to Biblical view, develop a new image of Sabbath and how it is different from any other time, and prepare our hearts and minds not just for the Sabbath day but for a Sabbath attitude.

Saturday morning:

Session 2:

Stop to find what is missing in our relationships and Sabbath, identify the purpose of our actions, and pay attention to what we've been missing

Session 3:

Look at God's ideal as told in Exodus and Deuteronomy, examine legalism and how it comes into play today, and explore what it means to embrace "that which gives life".

Saturday afternoon:

Session 4:

Explore restoration and our desire or lack thereof for being wholly restored, learn to hunger for the right things, and listen, remember and anticipate.

Experience a time of renewal.
Renew yourself, body,
mind and spirit.

The Dwelling Place is an ideal location to open oneself to the healing of your spirit. It is located on seventeen acres of pine studded land.

The natural beauty of the grounds lends itself to meditative walks. A large pond, with a gazebo nearby provides outdoor space for contemplation.

There are three cottages, a guest house, a chapel and a library --all available for guest use.
