

A Faith-Lifting Experience:

Clay never became anything but dense, damp dirt until it was taken by a potter and shaped into a useful vessel. In the same way, human beings, though fashioned in the image of God, never become more than flesh and blood until we submit to the Potter's Hands and allow Him to shape us into vessels fit to contain His Spirit and serve his children. During each of four sessions, Lee Ann will throw pots at the wheel as she teaches us about the severe mercy God uses in shaping our lives to bring glory to Himself.

"Can I not do with you as this potter does?" declares the Lord. 'Like clay in the hand of the potter, so are you in my hand,'" Jeremiah 18:6

YOUR FaithLift Leaders:

Lee Ann Williamson

Founder and executive director of Grace & Gladness Ministries, Lee Ann began her fulltime ministry with her father in 1981, serving as youth and music evangelist. She established Grace & Gladness Ministries in 1986 and has since traveled to many countries, conducting evangelistic campaigns, Christian worker training events, local church revivals, women's retreats, and discipleship training events. From 2003 to 2009, she served as the Director of Worship Ministries at St. Peter United Methodist Church in Blue Springs, Missouri. In 2009, she returned to Mississippi to transition into leadership of her father's inter-national ministry, Christian World Missions. Grace & Gladness Ministries is now a full partner of the CWM ministry group.

Lori Smith

Lori joined Grace & Gladness in 1991, strengthening the ministry team through her experience in local lay ministry leadership. Ten years working as an accountant and financial analyst equipped her well for her primary responsibility in overseeing the administration of the ministry, but she also assists Lee Ann in leading worship and is an effective teacher, particularly in areas of personal holiness and accountability, and stewardship development. From 2006 to 2009, Lori was Director of Finance and Development at Platte Woods United Methodist Church in the Kansas City area. She has now taken the same position with Christian World Missions, and lives Starkville, Mississippi.
