

FaithLift—When God Ran

The story of the lost son is familiar to many of us, but during the 2012 FaithLift, we will study it anew, digging deeper into the truths of God's Word. Join us for this weekend filled with fellowship around the table, music that will draw you into worship, teaching sessions grounded in the Word, personal testimonies of God's faithfulness and times of prayer and seeking.

Your FaithLift Leaders

Lee Ann Williamson

Worship Leader, Evangelist, Bible Teacher

Lee Ann began her fulltime ministry with her father in 1981, serving as youth and music evangelist. She has traveled to many countries, conducting evangelistic campaigns, Christian worker training events, local church revivals, women's retreats, and discipleship training events. Lee Ann is the Executive Director of Christian World Missions.

Lori Smith

Worship Leader, Evangelist, Bible Teacher

Lori joined the ministry in 1991, strengthening the team through her experience in local lay ministry leadership. Ten years working as an accountant and financial analyst equipped her well for overseeing the administration of the ministry, but she also assists in leading worship and is an effective teacher. Lori is the Director of Operations for Christian World Missions.

Susan Seal, PhD

Evangelist, Bible Teacher

Susan joined the ministry in July, 2011 after working in Extension education and public relations at Mississippi State University. She has been a lay speaker in the United Methodist Church, led Bible studies and retreats, headed ministry programs and founded the Women of the Vine Ministries. Susan is the Director of Outreach for Christian World Missions
